

Can you work out what the words mean?

Cathedral

Dome

Columns

Architect
Sir Christopher Wren

Classical architecture

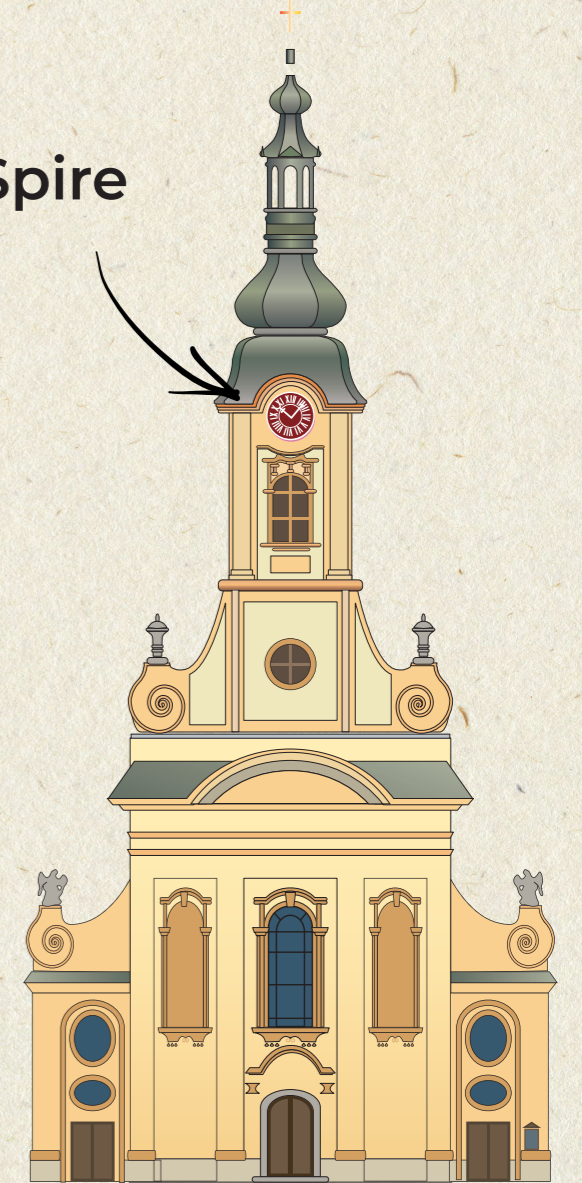

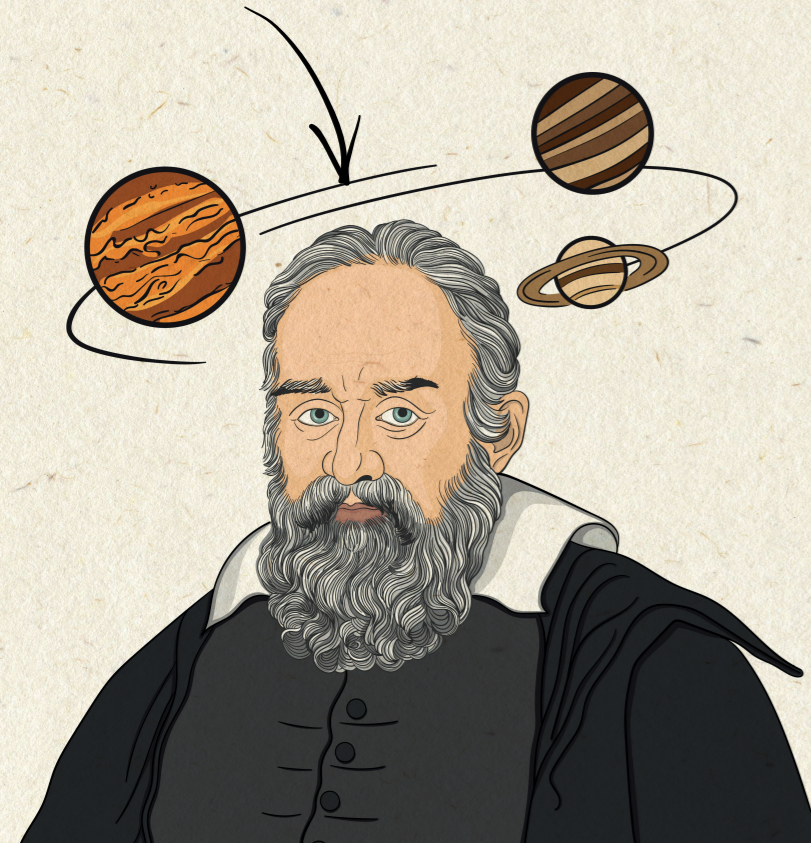

Wren and rebuilding London after the Great Fire of 1666

Astronomer

Stonemason

Carpenter

Spire

Architect:

a person who designs buildings.

Cathedral:

the most important church in a city.

Classical architecture:

Architecture inspired by the the ancient Greeks and Romans.

Columns:

cylindrical stone posts.

Dome:

a round roof.

Stonemason:

a person who carves stone.

Carpenter:

a person who carves and builds in wood.

Spire:

A tall pointed structure on the top of a building, typically a church tower.

Astronomer:

a person who studies the stars and planets.